About North Lakhimpur College, Assam

The first autonomous College of Assam, established in 1952, North Lakhimpur College has successfully carved its niche in the area of higher education in Assam. Committed to raising standard of higher education, the college intends to equip the learners with sound theoretical knowledge, adequate practical exposure and develop in them the capacity to think. College was awarded 'B++' grade by NAAC. At present the College offers graduate level courses in Arts and Science in twenty subjects and offers post graduate level course in seven subjects. A sound academic environment is the institution's goal which aptly complements its motto- 'Let noble thoughts come from all direction'.

About St. Paul's Cathedral Mission College, Kolkata

St. Pauls Cathedral Mission College was founded by the British Missionaries in 1865. During 20th Century the college was a hub wherein the dream of Freedom of India was nurtured. Rabindranath Tagore, Bibhutibhusan Bandyopadhyay, Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose, Mahatma Gandhi had visited this college in different points of time. Poets like Bishnu De, Nirendranath Chakraborty (of Bengal), Bishnu Prasad Rabha (of Assam) were students of this college. St. Paul's College, after Independence, has become a space for harmony and integration. Researches on Vaishnavism are being done in 'Sri Jagannath Research Centre' since January, 2009, where Research on Sri Jagannath of Assam has been going on at present. Field work based research paper on 'Sri Jagannath of Gauhati and Shillong' was published in 2009 itself. 'Sri Jagannath Research Centre' has been working on North-East India till now. On the occasion of 150th Anniversary of the college, APJ Abdul Kalam, the Honorable President of India visited this Heritage College.
